"Those who would share the benefits of the Saviour's mediation should permit nothing to interfere with their duty to perfect holiness in the fear of God. The precious hours, instead of being given to pleasure, to display, or to gain seeking, should be devoted to an earnest, prayerful study of the word of truth. The subject of the sanctuary and the investigative judgment should be carefully considered by the people of God. All need a knowledge for themselves of the position and work of their great High Priest. Otherwise it will be impossible for them to exercise the faith which is essential at this time, or to occupy the position which God designs them to fill. Every individual has a soul to save or to lose."
"Each has a case pending at the bar of God. Each must meet the great Judge face to face. How important, then, that every mind contemplate often the solemn scene when the judgment shall sit and the books shall be opened, when, "And every individual must stand in his lot, at the end of the days. All who have received the light upon these subjects are to bear testimony of the great truths which God has committed to them. The sanctuary in heaven is the very center of Christ's work in behalf of man. It receives every soul living upon the earth. It opens to the plan of redemption, bringing us to the very close of time and revealing the triumph: thus the contest between righteousness and sin. It is of the utmost importance that all should thoroughly investigate these subjects and be able to give an answer to every question that shall them a reason of the hope that is in us." GC 489

WHY WAS SIN PERMITTED?
PP 33

"Seek ye out of the book of the LORD, and read no one of these shall fail, none shall want her mate; for my mouth it hath commanded, and his spirit it hath gathered them." Isa 34:16
